

2020 Corporate Governance Statement

We are committed to achieving best practice across the Group in all that we do, which we believe is fundamental to the long-term performance and sustainability of the Group and the delivery of our strategic objectives.

NOVONIX Limited (the 'Company') and its associated entities (the 'Group'); believe corporate governance is central to its business objectives and a critical element contributing to the preservation of shareholder value.

The Board has adopted a suite of charters and key corporate governance documents which define the policies and procedures followed by the Group. These documents can be found in the Governance section of the Group's website and reviewed regularly to address changes in governance practices and the law.

The Group's Corporate Governance Statement references the ASX Corporate Governance Council Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd Edition) (the "Principles").

The Principles are outlined on the following pages, with the corresponding section of this Corporate Governance Statement addressing the Group's practices.

This statement provides an outline of the main corporate governance policies and practices the Group had in place during FY20 and how the Group's framework aligns with the Principles (unless otherwise noted).

This statement has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Group and the information contained herein is correct as of 21 September 2020.

You can find further information on the structure of our business, our board and management team along with our policies and practices on our website.

Recommendations

Compliance with recommendations

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

1.1 Role of Board and management

The Board has established a clear distinction between the functions and responsibilities reserved for the Board and those delegated to management, which are set out in the Group's Corporate Governance Charter (Charter). The Charter also provides an overview of the roles of the Chairman, Directors and Executives.

✓

A copy of the Charter is available in the Governance section of the Group's website.

1.2 Information regarding election or re-election of Director candidates

The Group carefully considers the character, experience, education, skill set as well as interests and associations of potential candidates for appointment to the Board and conducts appropriate checks with assistance from the Remuneration and Nomination Committees to verify the suitability of the candidate prior to their election.

Comprehensive biographical information is provided to shareholders in the notice of meetings to enable them to make an informed decision on whether to elect or re-elect a Director.

The Group has appropriate procedures in place to ensure material information relevant to a decision to elect or re-elect a Director is disclosed in the Notice of Meeting provided to shareholders.

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight (continued)

1.3 Written contracts of appointment

In addition to being set out in the Charter, all directors and senior executives have a written agreement which formalises the terms of their appointment. Each Director commits to a letter of appointment which specifies the term of their appointment, the envisaged time commitment, expectations and duties relating to the position, remuneration, disclosure and confidentiality obligations, insurance and indemnity entitlements, details of the Group's corporate governance policies, and reporting lines.

✓

Each Senior Executive enters into an employment contract which sets out the material terms of employment, including a description of position and duties, reporting lines, remuneration arrangements and termination rights and entitlements. Contract details of senior executives who are Key Management Personnel can be found in the 2020 Annual Report.

1.4 Company Secretary

The Group has a board-appointed company secretary. You can view their biographical details and qualifications in the 2020 Annual Report.

The group company secretary has overall responsibility for the group secretariat function and is directly accountable to the board, through the chairman, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board. This includes advising the board and its committees on governance matters, coordinating board business and providing a point of reference for dealings between the board and management.

All directors have access to the advice and services of the company secretary.

1.5 Diversity and inclusion

The Group's Diversity Policy is disclosed on the Group's website and sets out its objectives and reporting practices regarding diversity.

The Board continues to review and monitor the Group's diversity profile with a view to setting meaningful targets for the advancement of diversity within the Group.

Gender diversity statistics as at 30 June 2020 are outlined in the table below.

Item	Men	Women
Number of total employees	31	5
Percentage of total employees	86%	14%

1.6 Board reviews

The Board undertakes an evaluation process each year to assess its performance. The assessment is conducted by the Chairman who seeks Board and Management feedback on the performance of the Board and Committees as a whole, as well as feedback on individual directors and the Group's reporting and governance practices. The most recent evaluation was completed in September 2020.

1.7 Management reviews

The Chair of the Board is responsible for evaluating the performance of the Executive Directors. At least annually, the Board formally evaluates the performance of the Executive Directors against their previously approved KPIs. These reviews are documented. Performance reviews have been undertaken for the current reporting period.

✓

Principle 2 – Structure the board to add value

2.1 Nominations committee

The Board has not established a Nomination Committee. The roles and responsibilities are set out in the Group's Nominations Charter and these are currently overseen by the full Board
